A CONTRAST.

F ESTERDAY'S Los Angeles Examiner, in a special section is siled every Sunday for New Mexico and Arizona distribution. carried in adjoining columns articles reviewing the valuations for assessmont purposes of the states of New Mexico and Artzona. The New Mextoo item was headed:

"NEW MEXICO VALUED AT $250,000,000."

The Arizona article was headed: "ASSESSED VALUATION OF ARIZONA FOR 1914 $404,000,000."

The articles which followed these, headings made even a worse advertisement for this state than the meadings themselves; for the articles explained in turn that the $404,000 .-600 from Arizona was the valuation of property AS TAXED, while the $250,000,000 from New Mexico was the ACTUAL VALUATION OF ALL PROPERTY in this state; the valuation actually taxed being but onethird of two hundred and fifty mil-
